

Celebrating OAFRI Research Results from 2019 to 2022

Our initiatives strengthen Ontario’s agri-food sector by promoting resiliency, sustainability and long-term growth, ensuring that our food remains healthy, safe, affordable and accessible for everyone.

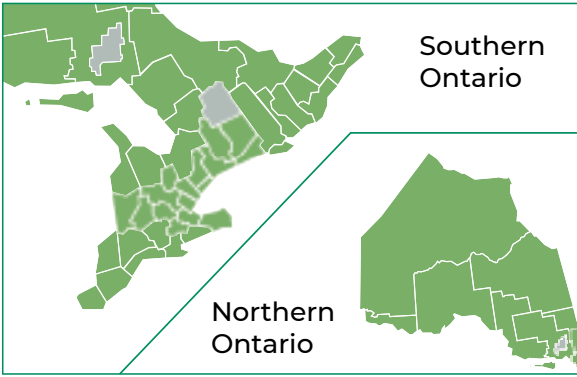

OAFRI* is a comprehensive suite of research programming designed to create partnerships, develop innovative solutions, share new insights and foster sector growth and resilience. Curious about all funded projects?

Learn more about the Ontario Agri-Food Research Initiative recipients!

This summary celebrates the successes of supporting Applied Research and KTT activities from 2019-2022.

*This initiative was previously funded under the Canadian Agricultural Partnership (CAP), a 5-year (2018-2023), federal-provincial-territorial initiative. OAFRI is currently funded by the Governments of Canada and Ontario through the Sustainable Canadian Agricultural Partnership (SCAP), a 5-year (2023-2028), federal-provincial-territorial initiative.

What was our reach?

Projects funded in 49 of 51 districts, counties and municipalities

Who did we partner with?

10 Universities

11 Sector Organizations

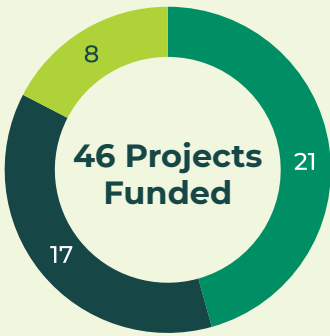

6 Businesses

2 Colleges

$4.7M TOTAL INVESTED

OAFRI trains top talent and addresses Ontario’s priorities

- Protection and risk resilience
- Climate change and the environment
- Productivity and growth

$2.4M GENERATED FROM PARTNERS TO INVEST IN PROJECTS

PROTECTION & RISK RESILIENCE

- Food safety
- Animal health & welfare
- Plant health & protection

CLIMATE CHANGE & THE ENVIRONMENT

- Soil health
- Water quality & quantity
- Sustainable production systems
- Productive land capacity

PRODUCTIVITY & GROWTH

- Competitive production systems
- Innovative products & product development
- Trade, market & targeted growth opportunities