

Washagamis Bay First Nation Garden Islands

Reserve Claim

FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY

- Proposed Settlement Lands
(Total area: 207.7 ac)
- Washagamis Bay First Nation Reserve
- Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve
- Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed for Deregulation
- Private Land
- Waterbody
- Highway
- Street

NOTES

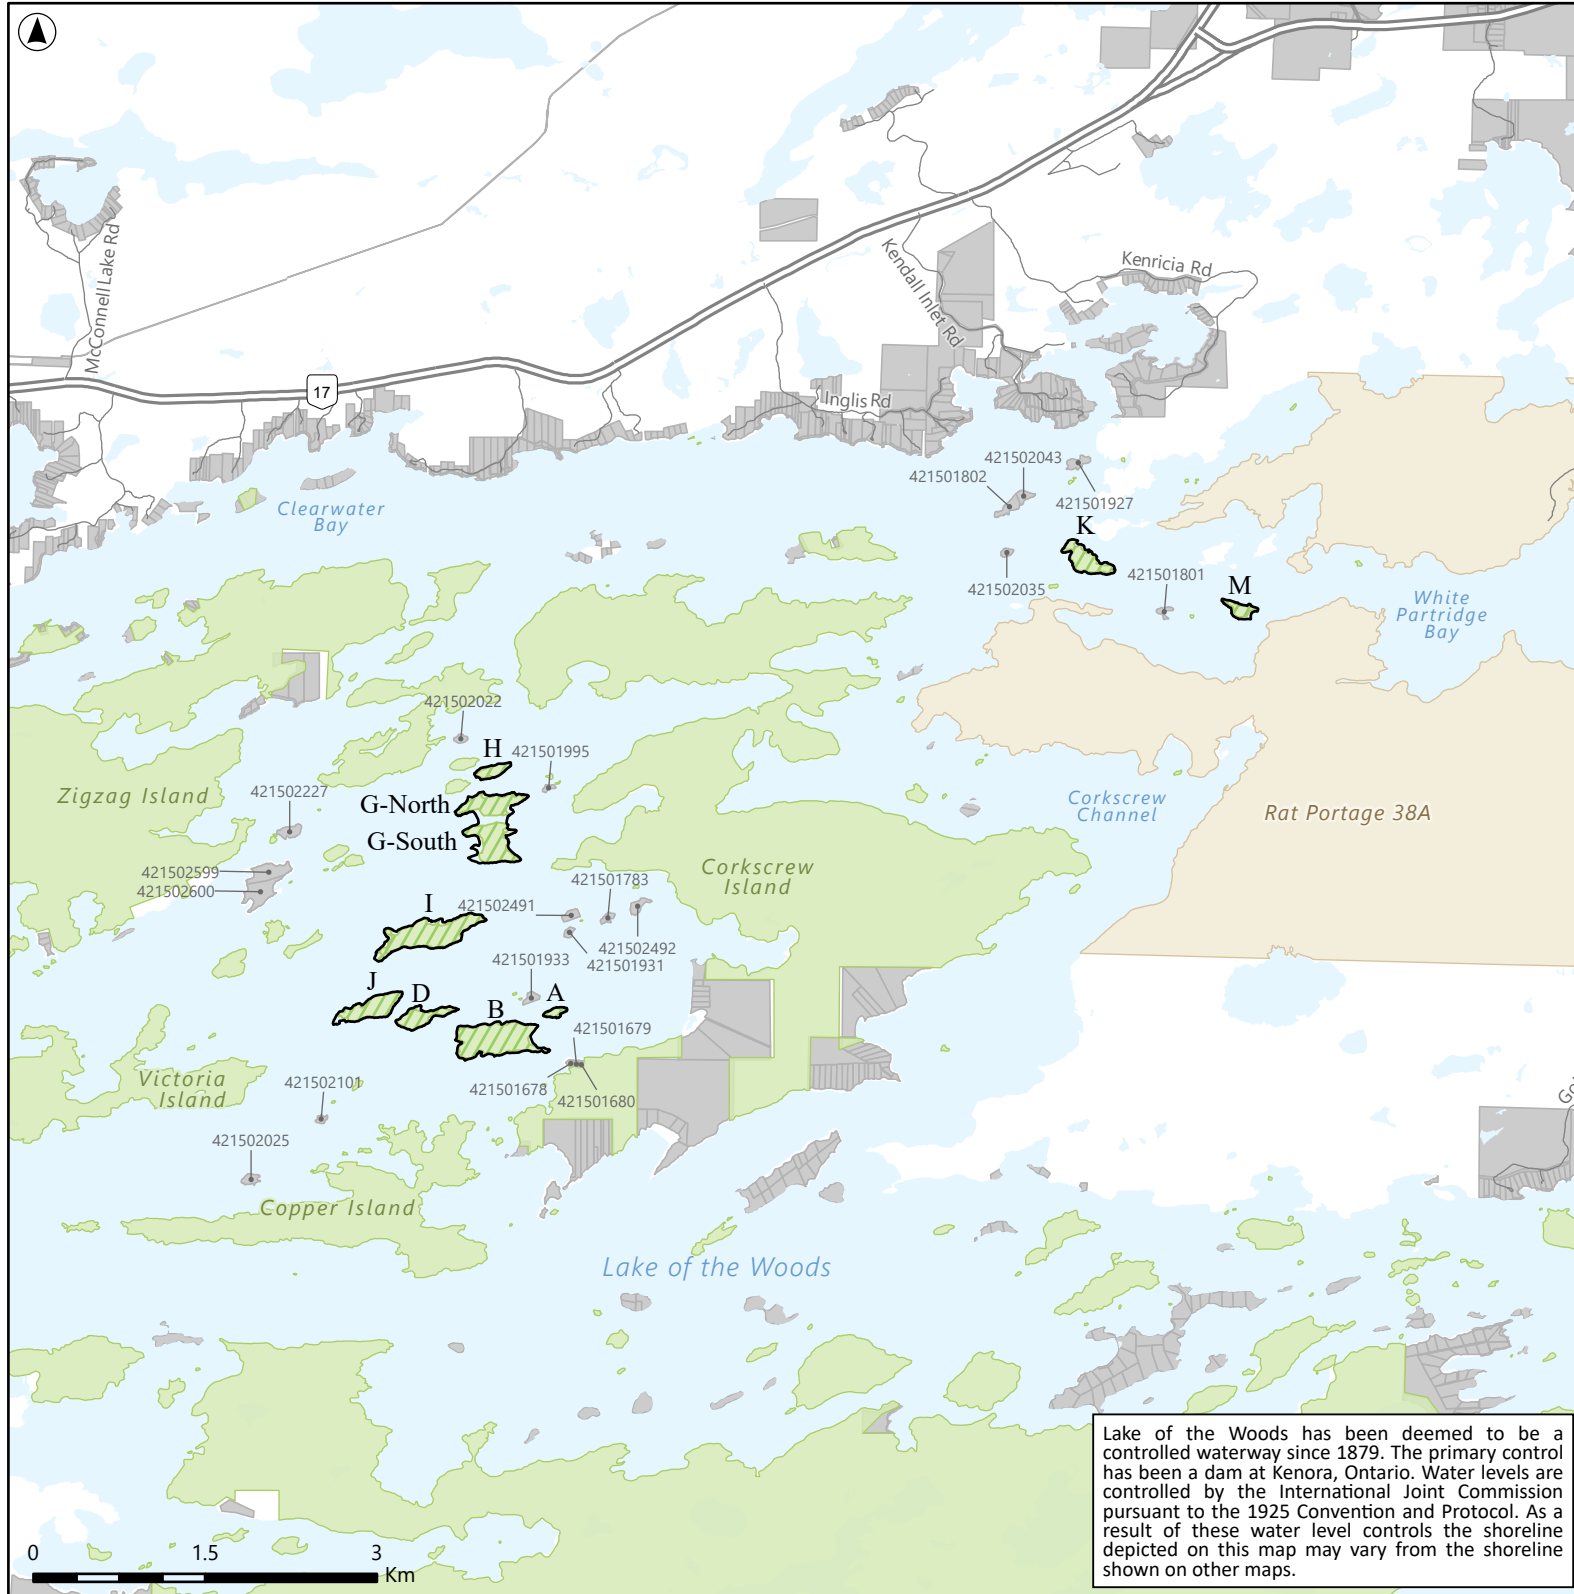

The Government of Ontario does not expropriate private property to settle land claims. Access to private property and the public right to navigation will be maintained.

Map produced by the Ministry of Indigenous Affairs and First Nations Economic Reconciliation (IAFNER) with data from Geospatial Ontario. Updated: May 20, 2025. Projection: NAD 1983 CSRS UTM Zone 15N Scale: 1:66,000

For illustrative and discussion purposes only. Distances and areas are approximate. This map should not be relied on as evidence of the location of legal boundaries, a precise indicator of routes or locations, or a guide to navigation. The Government of Ontario and its ministers, agents, and employees disclaim all responsibility for any errors, omission, or inaccuracies.

This map illustrates the Proposed Settlement Lands that Ontario may transfer to Canada for the Washagamis Bay First Nation's reserve claim. The lands are as follows: Islands A, B, D, G-North, G-South, H, I, J, K, M, and the land underwater surrounding each of these islands to a contour of 320.72m CGVD28. The Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed for Deregulation illustrate the lands that are proposed to be removed from the Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve prior to transfer to Canada.

If you need this document in an alternate format for accessibility reasons, please contact IAFNER at 416-920-3636 or WBFNGardenIslands@ontario.ca.

Lake of the Woods has been deemed to be a controlled waterway since 1879. The primary control has been a dam at Kenora, Ontario. Water levels are controlled by the International Joint Commission pursuant to the 1925 Convention and Protocol. As a result of these water level controls the shoreline depicted on this map may vary from the shoreline shown on other maps.

Washagamis Bay First Nation Garden Islands

Reserve Claim

FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY

-  Proposed Settlement Lands
(Island A area: 3.0 ac)
-  Washagamis Bay First Nation Reserve
-  Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve
-  Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed
for Deregulation
-  Private Land
-  Waterbody
-  Highway
-  Street

NOTES

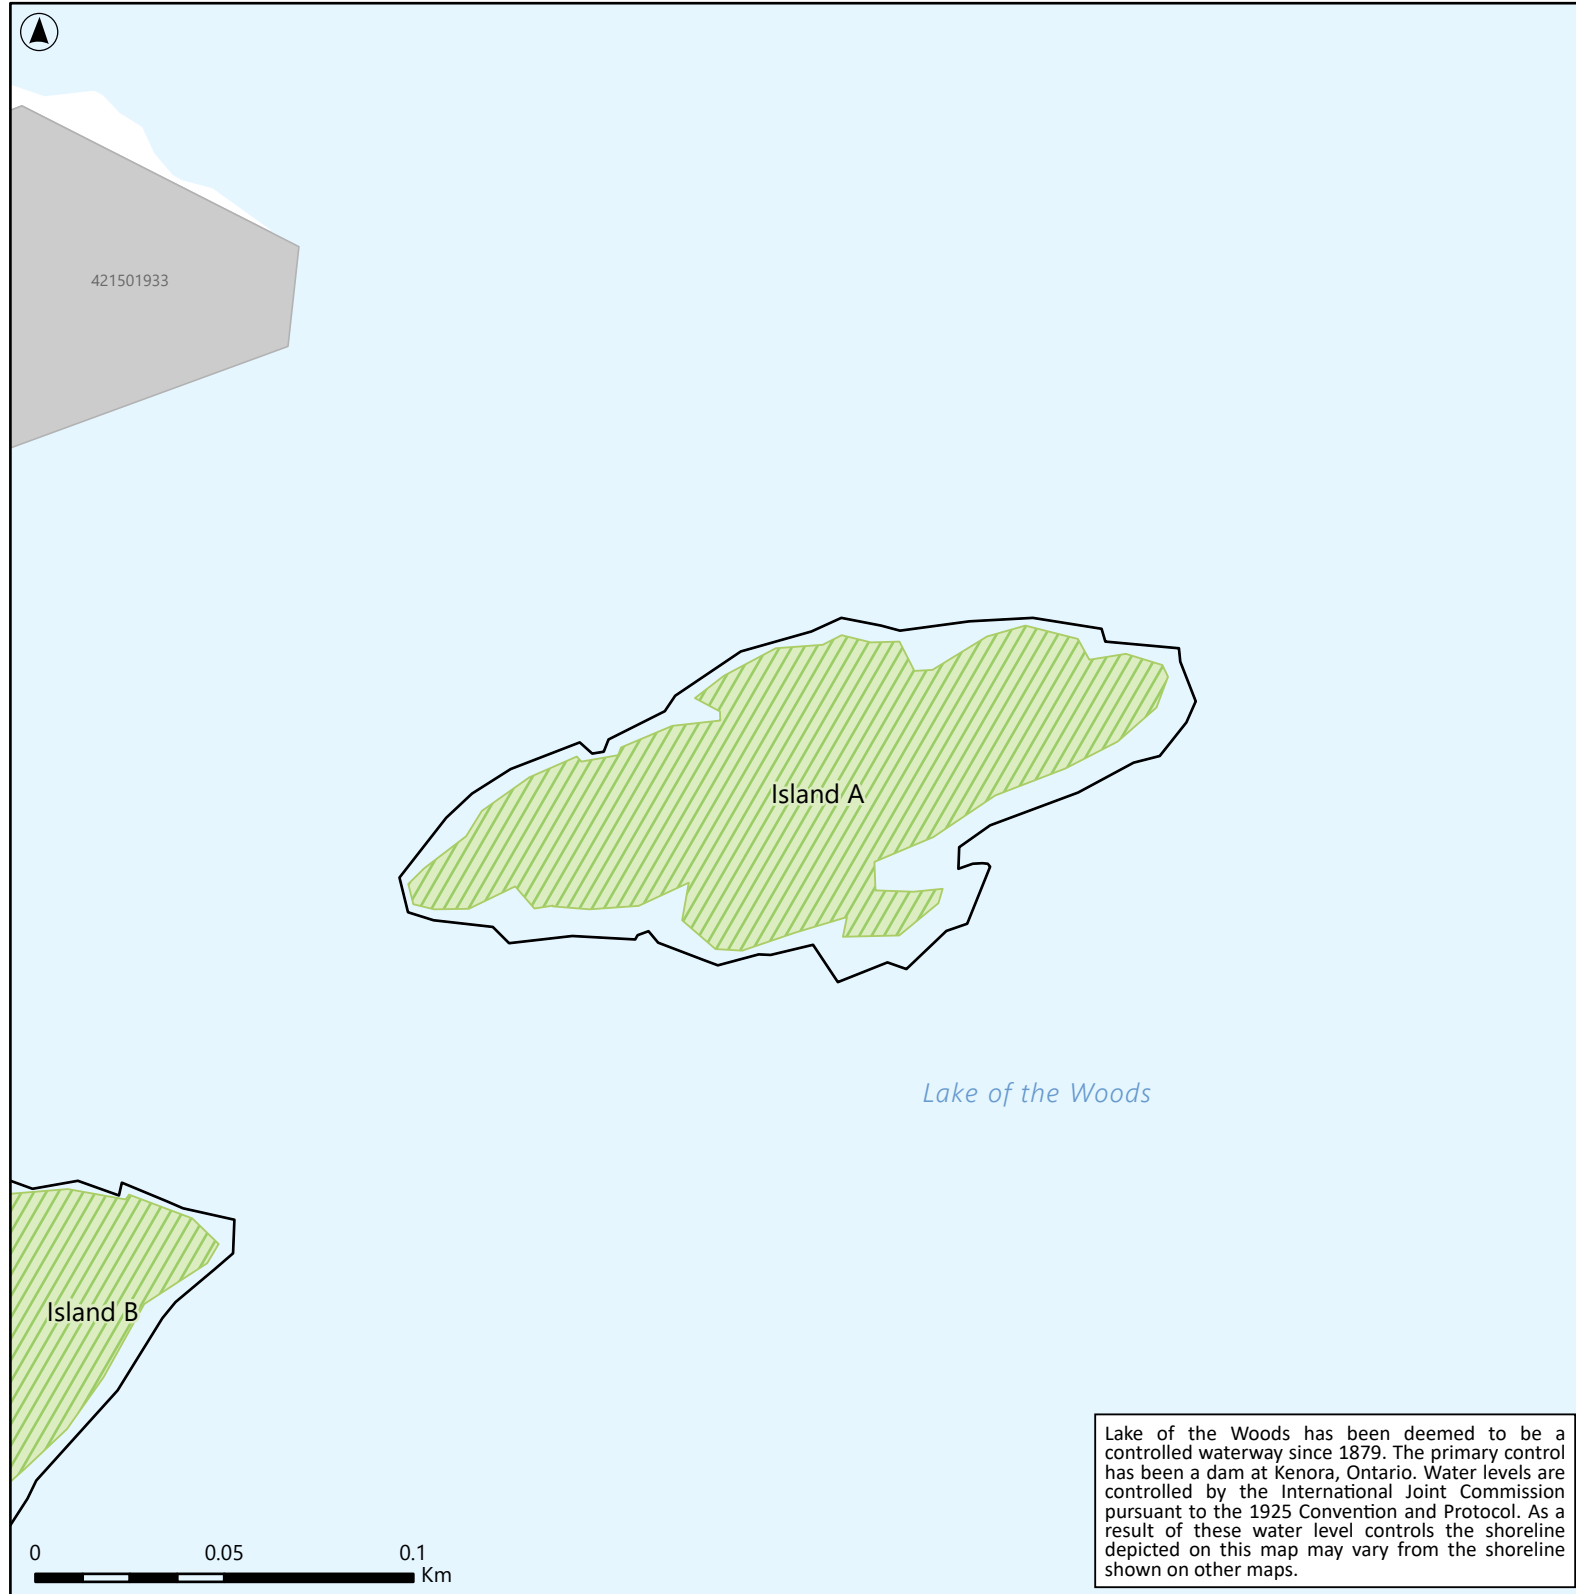

The Government of Ontario does not expropriate private property to settle land claims. Access to private property and the public right to navigation will be maintained.

Map produced by the Ministry of Indigenous Affairs and First Nations Economic Reconciliation (IAFNER) with data from Geospatial Ontario. Updated: May 20, 2025. Projection: NAD 1983 CSRS UTM Zone 15N Scale: 1:2,000

For illustrative and discussion purposes only. Distances and areas are approximate. This map should not be relied on as evidence of the location of legal boundaries, a precise indicator of routes or locations, or a guide to navigation. The Government of Ontario and its ministers, agents, and employees disclaim all responsibility for any errors, omission, or inaccuracies.

This map illustrates the Proposed Settlement Lands that Ontario may transfer to Canada for the Washagamis Bay First Nation's reserve claim. The lands are as follows: Islands A, B, D, G-North, G-South, H, I, J, K, M, and the land underwater surrounding each of these islands to a contour of 320.72m CGVD28. The Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed for Deregulation illustrate the lands that are proposed to be removed from the Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve prior to transfer to Canada.

If you need this document in an alternate format for accessibility reasons, please contact IAFNER at 416-920-3636 or WBFNGardenIslands@ontario.ca.

Lake of the Woods has been deemed to be a controlled waterway since 1879. The primary control has been a dam at Kenora, Ontario. Water levels are controlled by the International Joint Commission pursuant to the 1925 Convention and Protocol. As a result of these water level controls the shoreline depicted on this map may vary from the shoreline shown on other maps.

Washagamis Bay First Nation Garden Islands

Reserve Claim

FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY

-  Proposed Settlement Lands
(Island B area: 44.9 ac)
-  Washagamis Bay First Nation Reserve
-  Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve
-  Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed
for Deregulation
-  Private Land
-  Waterbody
-  Highway
-  Street

NOTES

The Government of Ontario does not expropriate private property to settle land claims. Access to private property and the public right to navigation will be maintained.

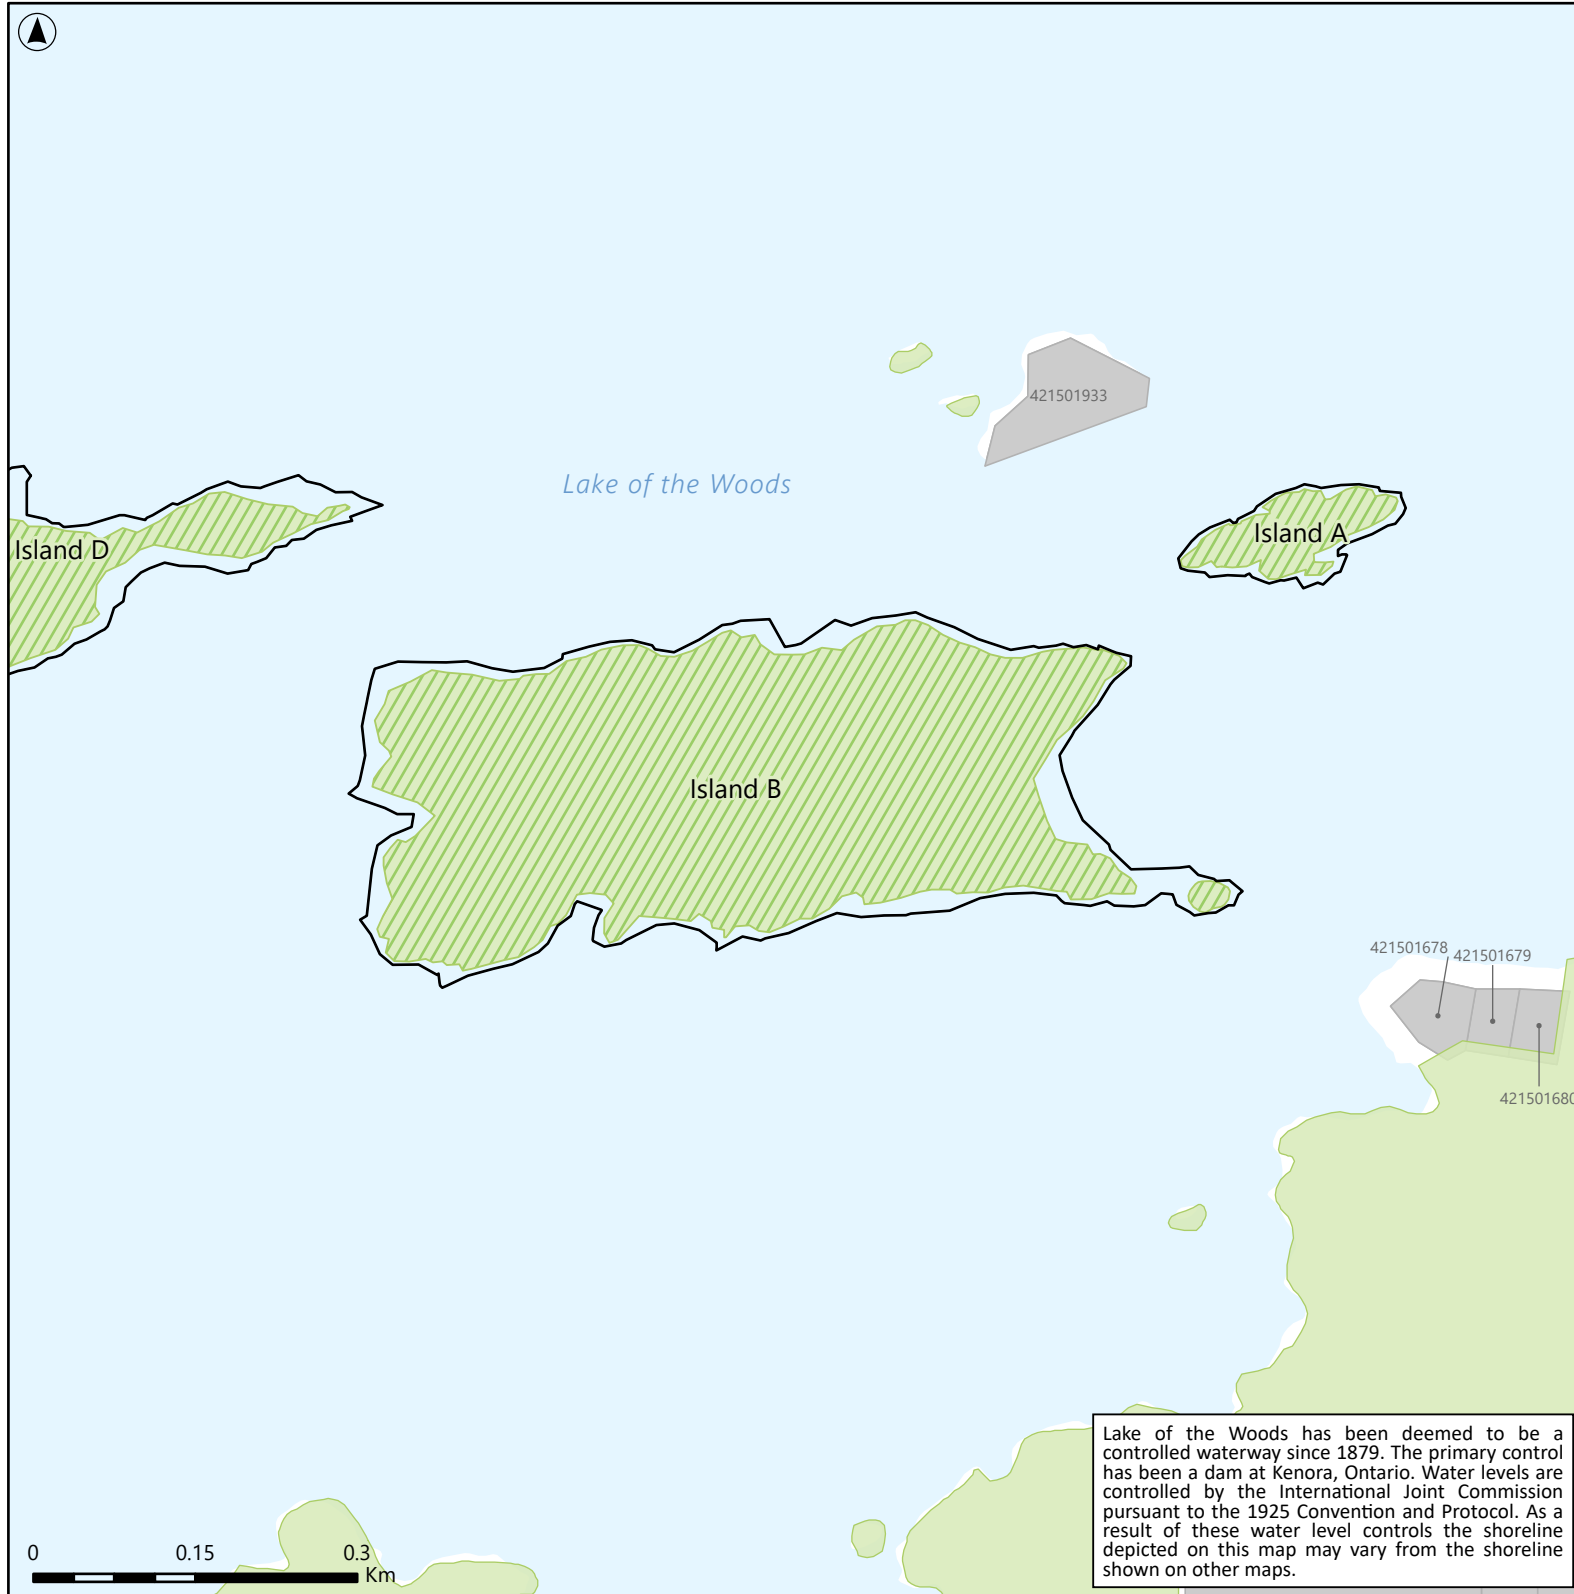

Map produced by the Ministry of Indigenous Affairs and First Nations Economic Reconciliation (IAFNER) with data from Geospatial Ontario. Updated: May 20, 2025. Projection: NAD 1983 CSRS UTM Zone 15N Scale: 1:7,000

For illustrative and discussion purposes only. Distances and areas are approximate. This map should not be relied on as evidence of the location of legal boundaries, a precise indicator of routes or locations, or a guide to navigation. The Government of Ontario and its ministers, agents, and employees disclaim all responsibility for any errors, omission, or inaccuracies.

This map illustrates the Proposed Settlement Lands that Ontario may transfer to Canada for the Washagamis Bay First Nation's reserve claim. The lands are as follows: Islands A, B, D, G-North, G-South, H, I, J, K, M, and the land underwater surrounding each of these islands to a contour of 320.72m CGVD28. The Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed for Deregulation illustrate the lands that are proposed to be removed from the Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve prior to transfer to Canada.

If you need this document in an alternate format for accessibility reasons, please contact IAFNER at 416-920-3636 or WBFNGardenIslands@ontario.ca.

© King's Printer for Ontario, 2025

Lake of the Woods has been deemed to be a controlled waterway since 1879. The primary control has been a dam at Kenora, Ontario. Water levels are controlled by the International Joint Commission pursuant to the 1925 Convention and Protocol. As a result of these water level controls the shoreline depicted on this map may vary from the shoreline shown on other maps.

Washagamis Bay First Nation Garden Islands

Reserve Claim

FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY

-  Proposed Settlement Lands
(Island D area: 13.2 ac)
-  Washagamis Bay First Nation Reserve
-  Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve
-  Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed
for Deregulation
-  Private Land
-  Waterbody
-  Highway
-  Street

NOTES

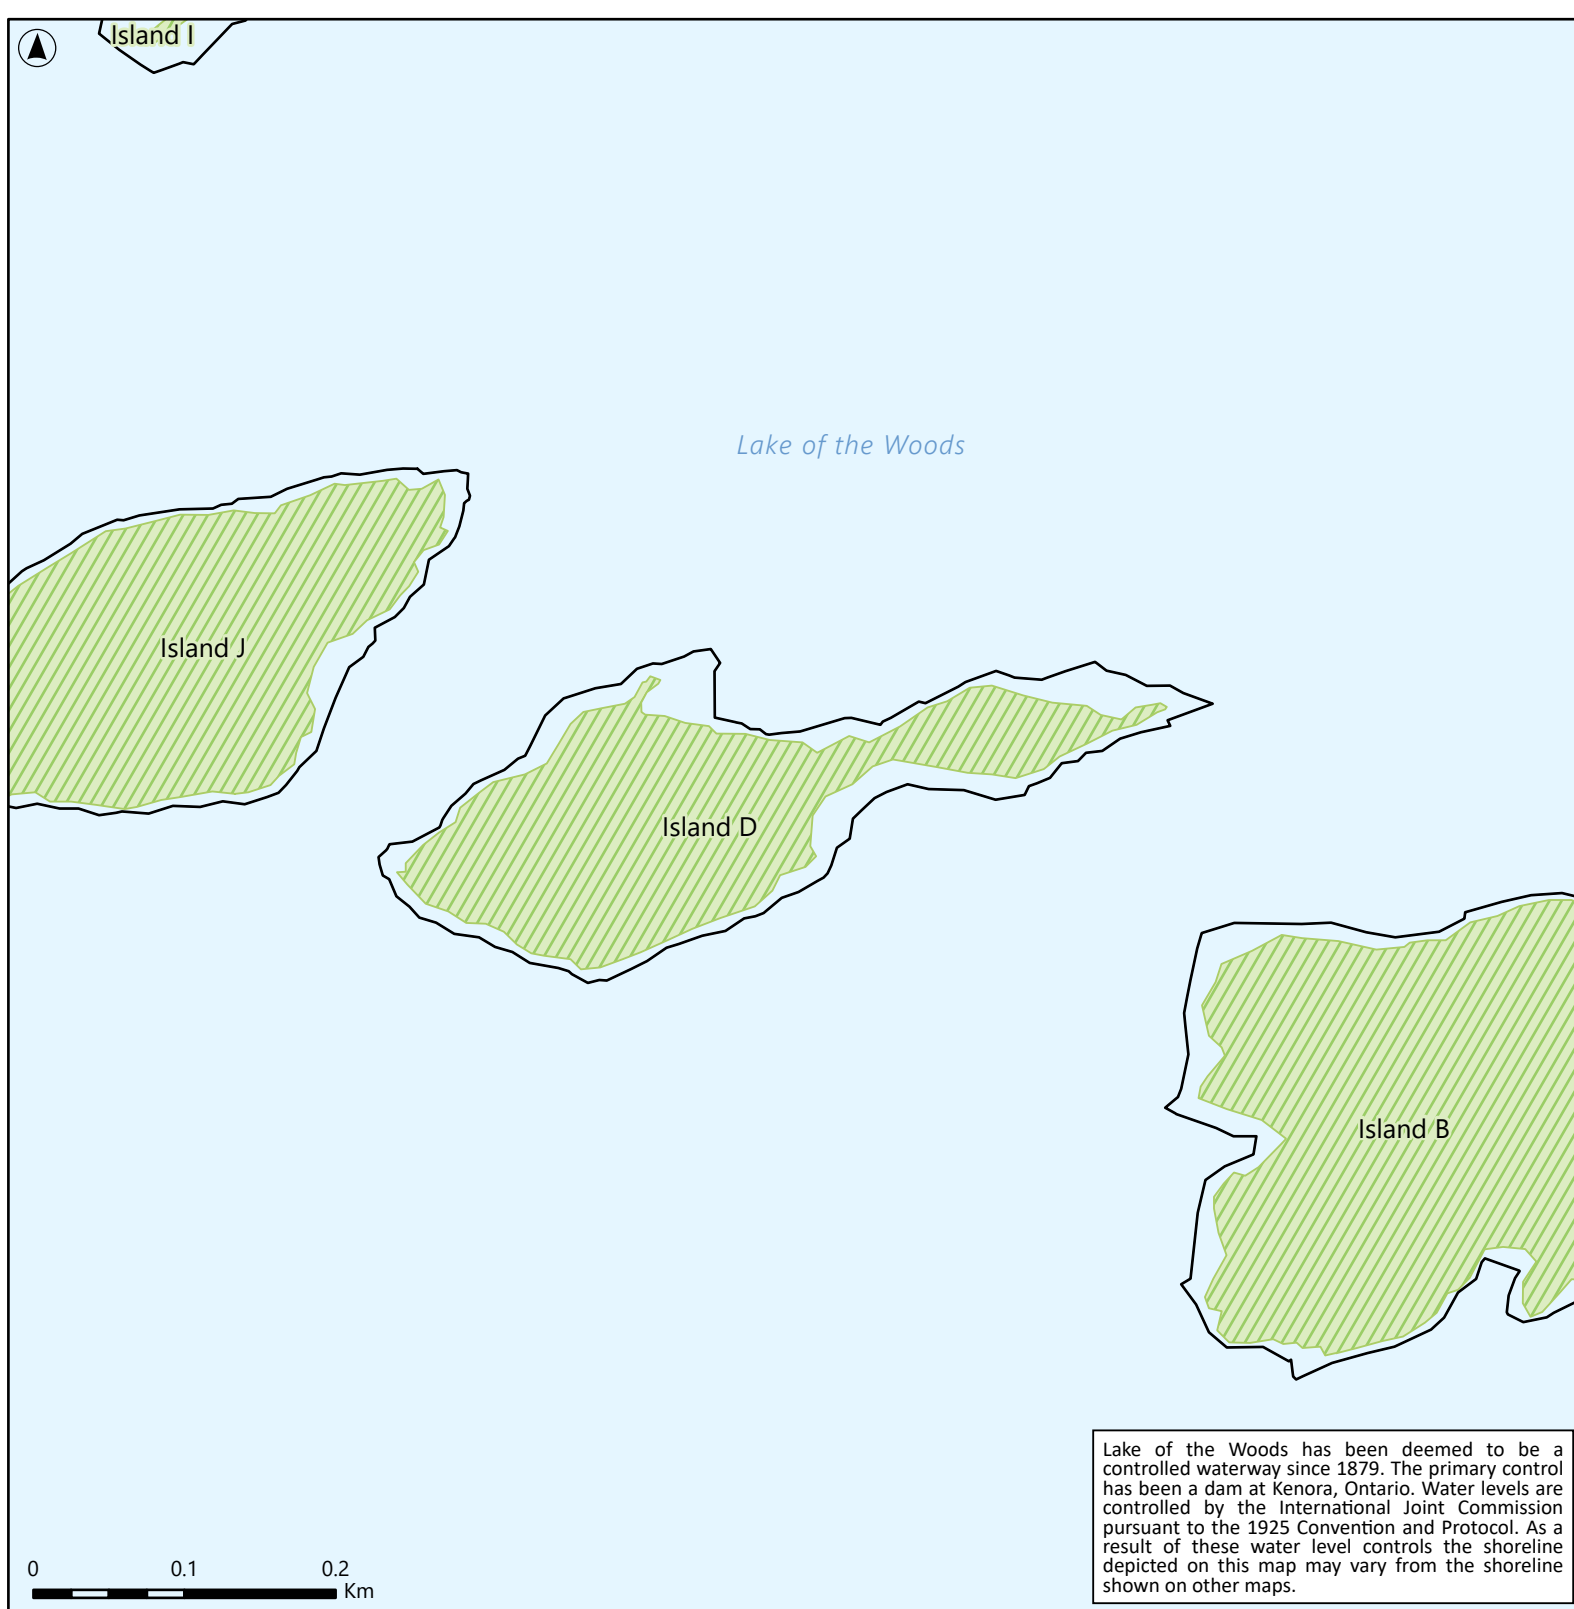

The Government of Ontario does not expropriate private property to settle land claims. Access to private property and the public right to navigation will be maintained.

Map produced by the Ministry of Indigenous Affairs and First Nations Economic Reconciliation (IAFNER) with data from Geospatial Ontario. Updated: May 20, 2025. Projection: NAD 1983 CSRS UTM Zone 15N Scale: 1:5,000

For illustrative and discussion purposes only. Distances and areas are approximate. This map should not be relied on as evidence of the location of legal boundaries, a precise indicator of routes or locations, or a guide to navigation. The Government of Ontario and its ministers, agents, and employees disclaim all responsibility for any errors, omission, or inaccuracies.

This map illustrates the Proposed Settlement Lands that Ontario may transfer to Canada for the Washagamis Bay First Nation's reserve claim. The lands are as follows: Islands A, B, D, G-North, G-South, H, I, J, K, M, and the land underwater surrounding each of these islands to a contour of 320.72m CGVD28. The Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed for Deregulation illustrate the lands that are proposed to be removed from the Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve prior to transfer to Canada.

If you need this document in an alternate format for accessibility reasons, please contact IAFNER at 416-920-3636 or WBFNGardenIslands@ontario.ca.

Lake of the Woods has been deemed to be a controlled waterway since 1879. The primary control has been a dam at Kenora, Ontario. Water levels are controlled by the International Joint Commission pursuant to the 1925 Convention and Protocol. As a result of these water level controls the shoreline depicted on this map may vary from the shoreline shown on other maps.

Washagamis Bay First Nation Garden Islands

Reserve Claim

FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY

-  Proposed Settlement Lands
(Island G area: 53.6 ac)
-  Washagamis Bay First Nation Reserve
-  Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve
-  Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed
for Deregulation
-  Private Land
-  Waterbody
-  Highway
-  Street

NOTES

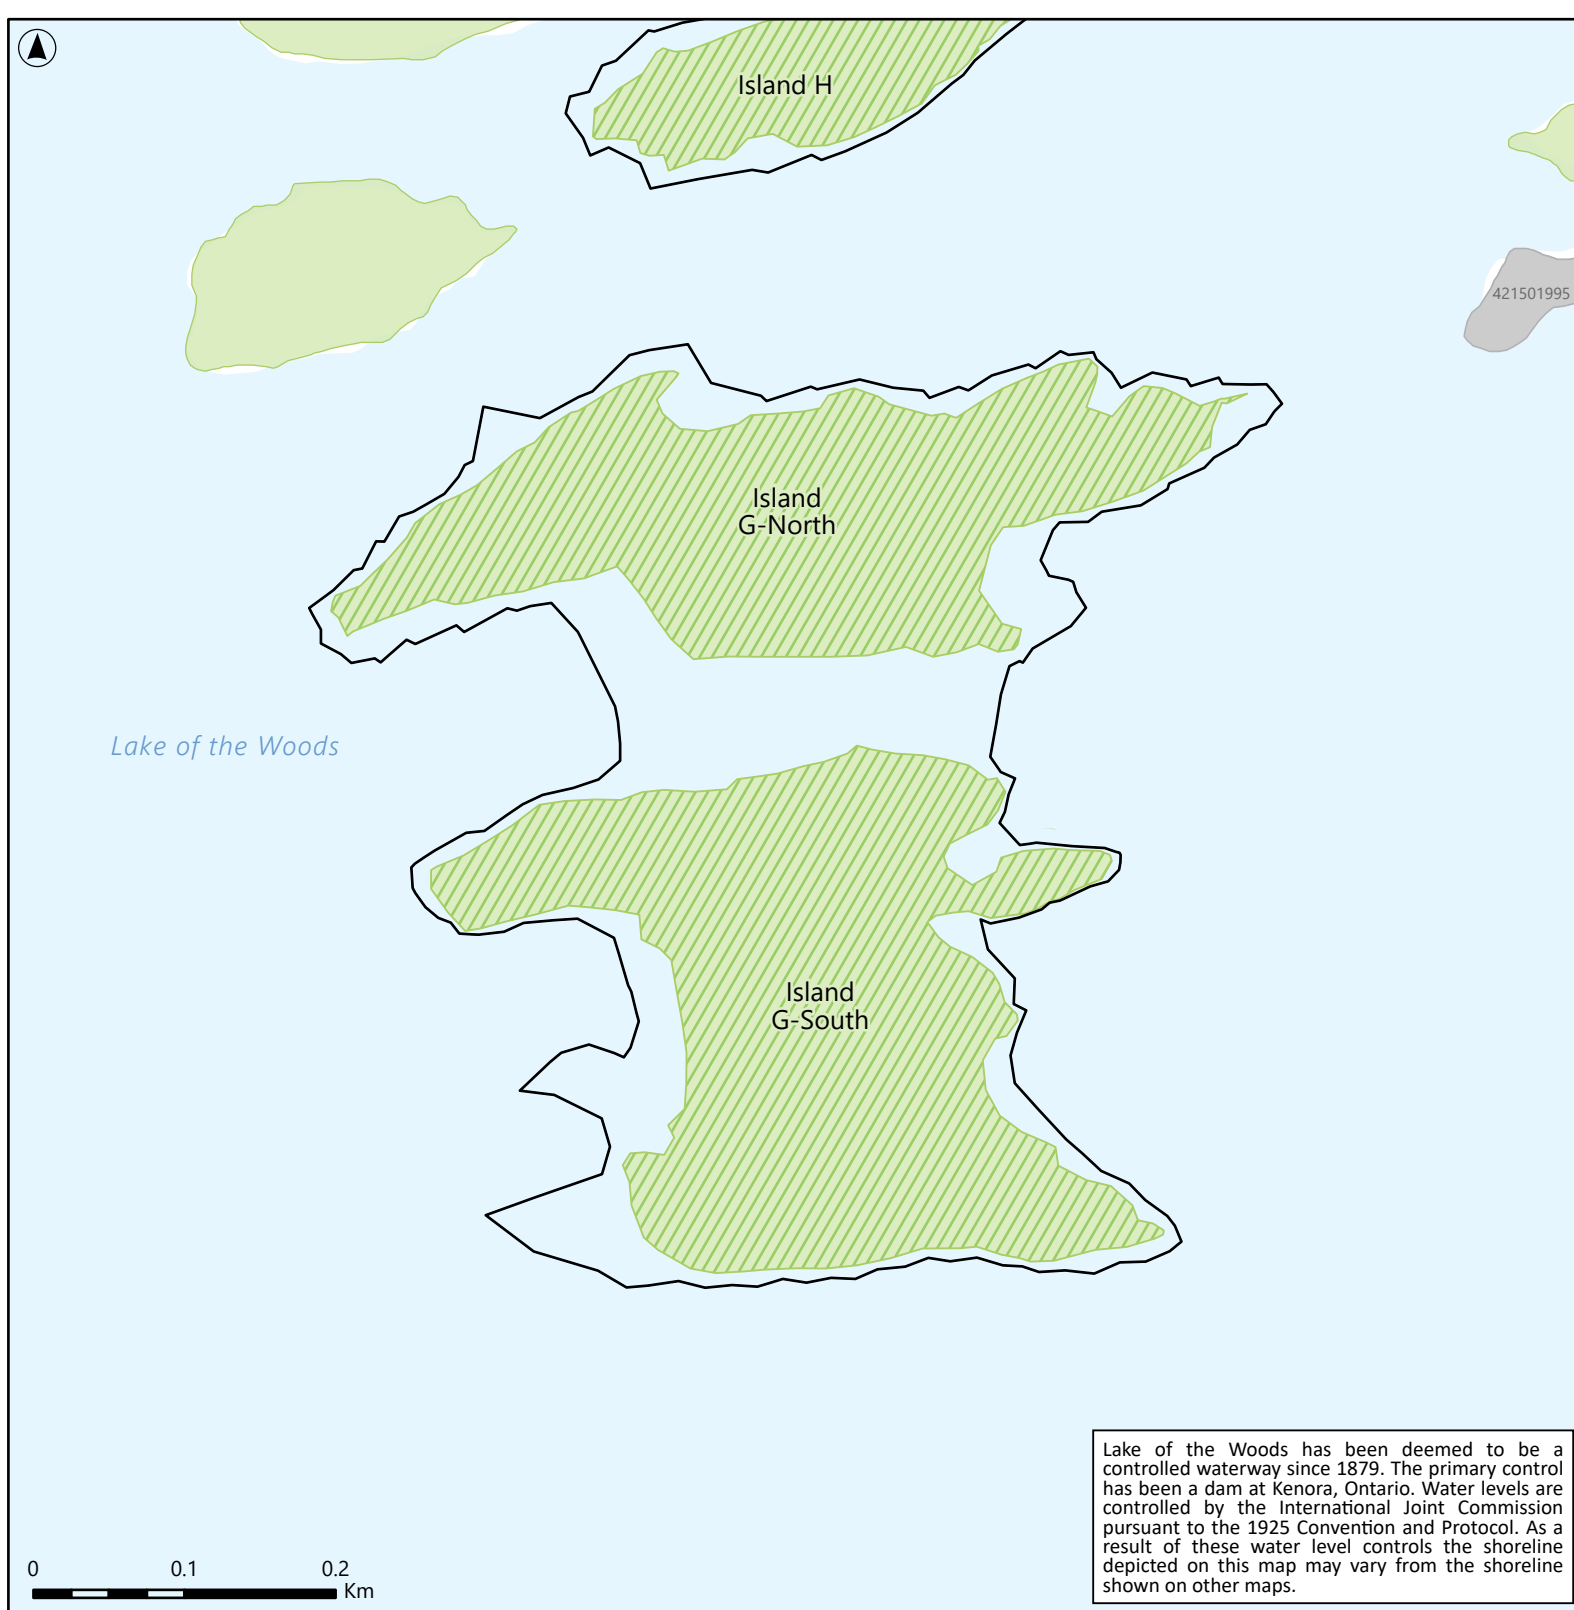

The Government of Ontario does not expropriate private property to settle land claims. Access to private property and the public right to navigation will be maintained.

Map produced by the Ministry of Indigenous Affairs and First Nations Economic Reconciliation (IAFNER) with data from Geospatial Ontario. Updated: May 20, 2025. Projection: NAD 1983 CSRS UTM Zone 15N Scale: 1:5,000

For illustrative and discussion purposes only. Distances and areas are approximate. This map should not be relied on as evidence of the location of legal boundaries, a precise indicator of routes or locations, or a guide to navigation. The Government of Ontario and its ministers, agents, and employees disclaim all responsibility for any errors, omission, or inaccuracies.

This map illustrates the Proposed Settlement Lands that Ontario may transfer to Canada for the Washagamis Bay First Nation's reserve claim. The lands are as follows: Islands A, B, D, G-North, G-South, H, I, J, K, M, and the land underwater surrounding each of these islands to a contour of 320.72m CGVD28. The Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed for Deregulation illustrate the lands that are proposed to be removed from the Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve prior to transfer to Canada.

If you need this document in an alternate format for accessibility reasons, please contact IAFNER at 416-920-3636 or WBFNGardenIslands@ontario.ca.

Washagamis Bay First Nation Garden Islands

Reserve Claim

FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY

-  Proposed Settlement Lands
(Island H area: 6.6 ac)
-  Washagamis Bay First Nation Reserve
-  Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve
-  Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed
for Deregulation
-  Private Land
-  Waterbody
-  Highway
-  Street

NOTES

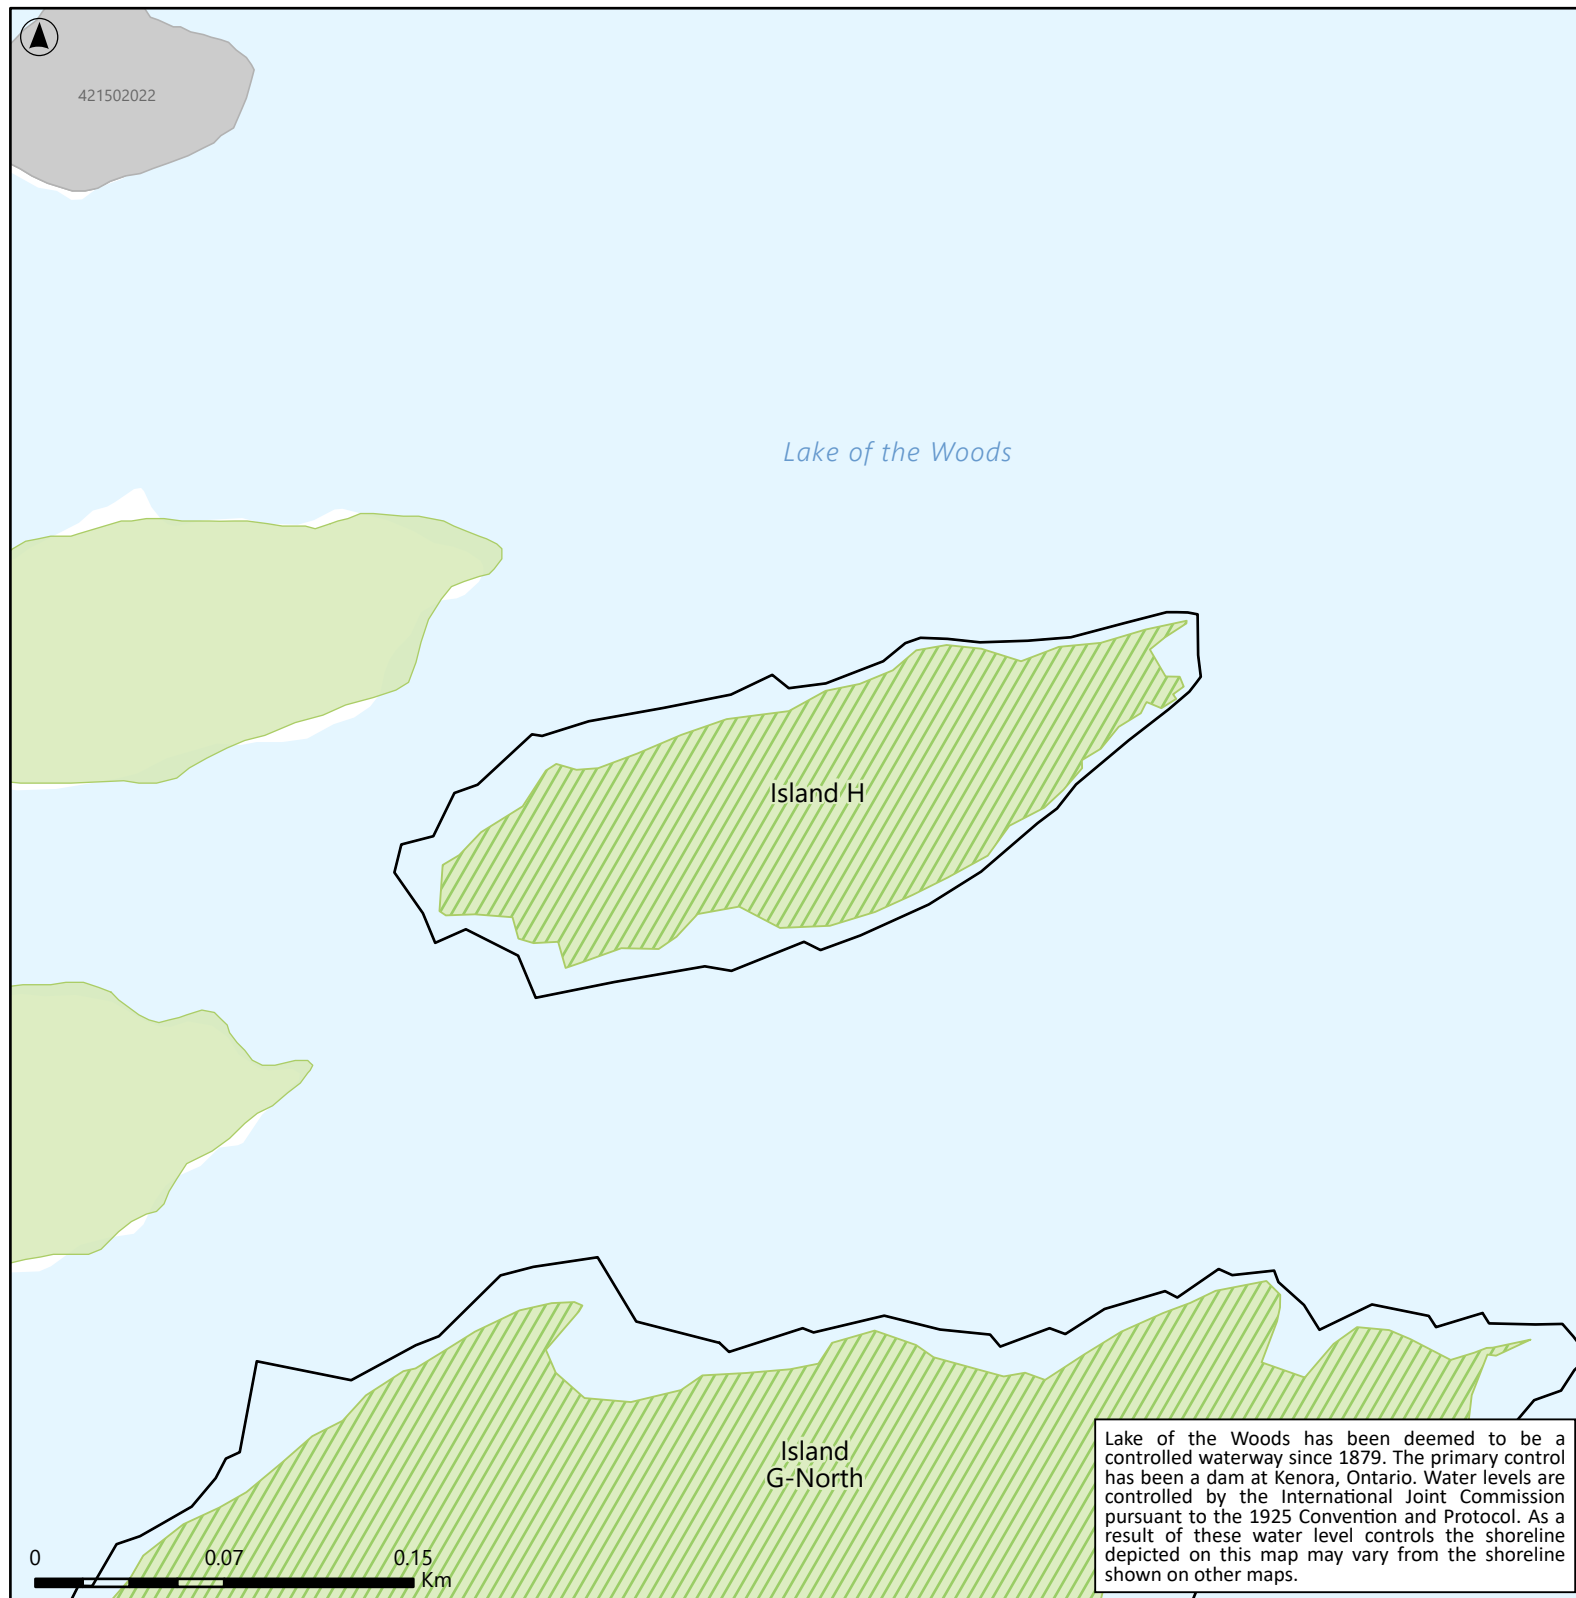

The Government of Ontario does not expropriate private property to settle land claims. Access to private property and the public right to navigation will be maintained.

Map produced by the Ministry of Indigenous Affairs and First Nations Economic Reconciliation (IAFNER) with data from Geospatial Ontario. Updated: May 20, 2025. Projection: NAD 1983 CSRS UTM Zone 15N Scale: 1:3,000

For illustrative and discussion purposes only. Distances and areas are approximate. This map should not be relied on as evidence of the location of legal boundaries, a precise indicator of routes or locations, or a guide to navigation. The Government of Ontario and its ministers, agents, and employees disclaim all responsibility for any errors, omission, or inaccuracies.

This map illustrates the Proposed Settlement Lands that Ontario may transfer to Canada for the Washagamis Bay First Nation's reserve claim. The lands are as follows: Islands A, B, D, G-North, G-South, H, I, J, K, M, and the land underwater surrounding each of these islands to a contour of 320.72m CGVD28. The Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed for Deregulation illustrate the lands that are proposed to be removed from the Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve prior to transfer to Canada.

If you need this document in an alternate format for accessibility reasons, please contact IAFNER at 416-920-3636 or WBFNGardenIslands@ontario.ca.

Lake of the Woods has been deemed to be a controlled waterway since 1879. The primary control has been a dam at Kenora, Ontario. Water levels are controlled by the International Joint Commission pursuant to the 1925 Convention and Protocol. As a result of these water level controls the shoreline depicted on this map may vary from the shoreline shown on other maps.

Washagamis Bay First Nation Garden Islands

Reserve Claim

FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY

-  Proposed Settlement Lands
(Island I area: 42.4 ac)
-  Washagamis Bay First Nation Reserve
-  Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve
-  Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed
for Deregulation
-  Private Land
-  Waterbody
-  Highway
-  Street

NOTES

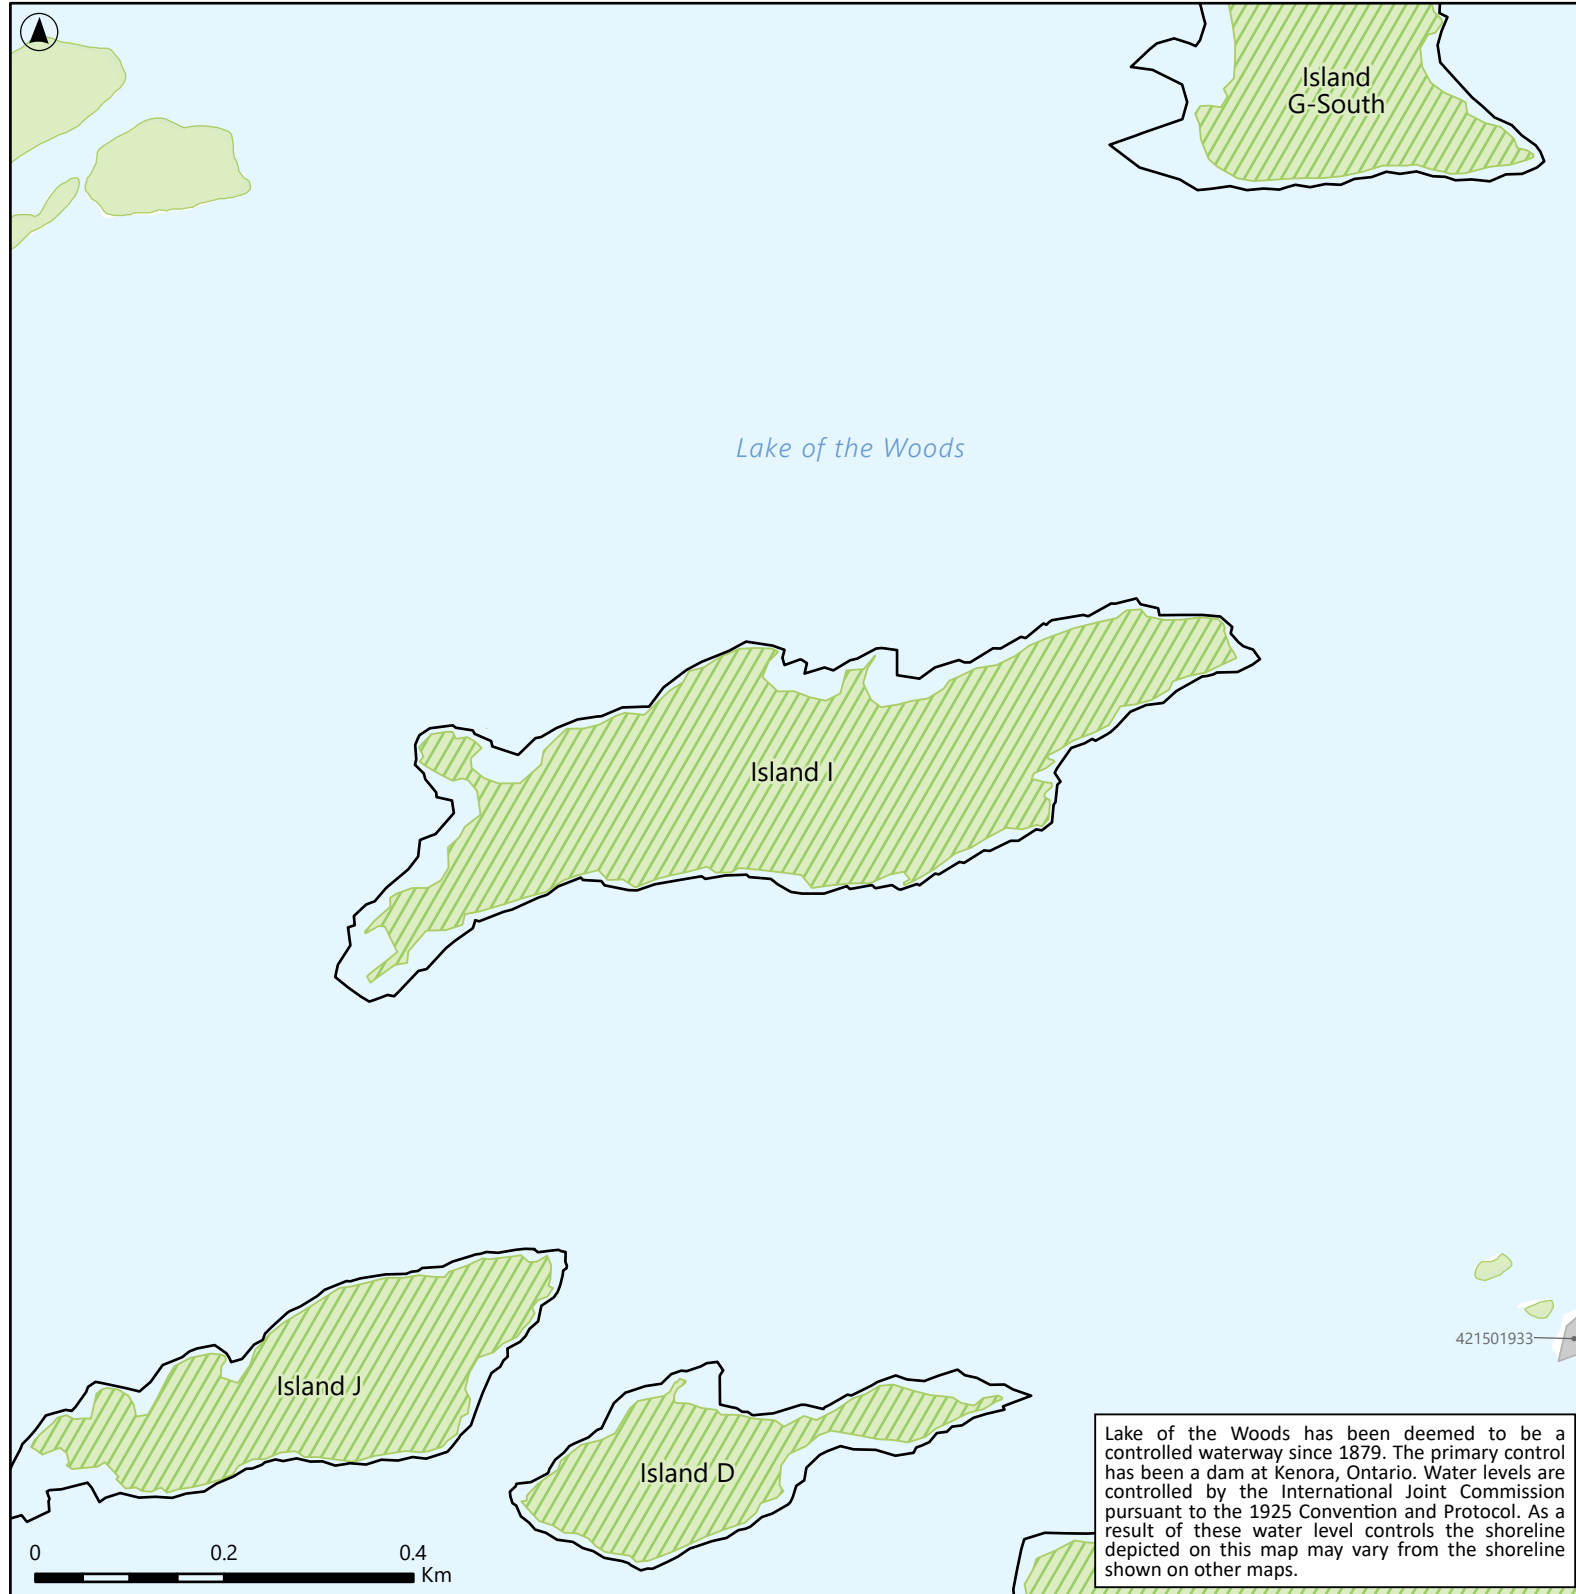

The Government of Ontario does not expropriate private property to settle land claims. Access to private property and the public right to navigation will be maintained.

Map produced by the Ministry of Indigenous Affairs and First Nations Economic Reconciliation (IAFNER) with data from Geospatial Ontario. Updated: May 20, 2025. Projection: NAD 1983 CSRS UTM Zone 15N Scale: 1:8,000

For illustrative and discussion purposes only. Distances and areas are approximate. This map should not be relied on as evidence of the location of legal boundaries, a precise indicator of routes or locations, or a guide to navigation. The Government of Ontario and its ministers, agents, and employees disclaim all responsibility for any errors, omission, or inaccuracies.

This map illustrates the Proposed Settlement Lands that Ontario may transfer to Canada for the Washagamis Bay First Nation's reserve claim. The lands are as follows: Islands A, B, D, G-North, G-South, H, I, J, K, M, and the land underwater surrounding each of these islands to a contour of 320.72m CGVD28. The Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed for Deregulation illustrate the lands that are proposed to be removed from the Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve prior to transfer to Canada.

If you need this document in an alternate format for accessibility reasons, please contact IAFNER at 416-920-3636 or WBFNGardenIslands@ontario.ca.

Lake of the Woods has been deemed to be a controlled waterway since 1879. The primary control has been a dam at Kenora, Ontario. Water levels are controlled by the International Joint Commission pursuant to the 1925 Convention and Protocol. As a result of these water level controls the shoreline depicted on this map may vary from the shoreline shown on other maps.

Washagamis Bay First Nation Garden Islands

Reserve Claim

FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY

-  Proposed Settlement Lands
(Island J area: 20.2 ac)
-  Washagamis Bay First Nation Reserve
-  Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve
-  Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed
for Deregulation
-  Private Land
-  Waterbody
-  Highway
-  Street

NOTES

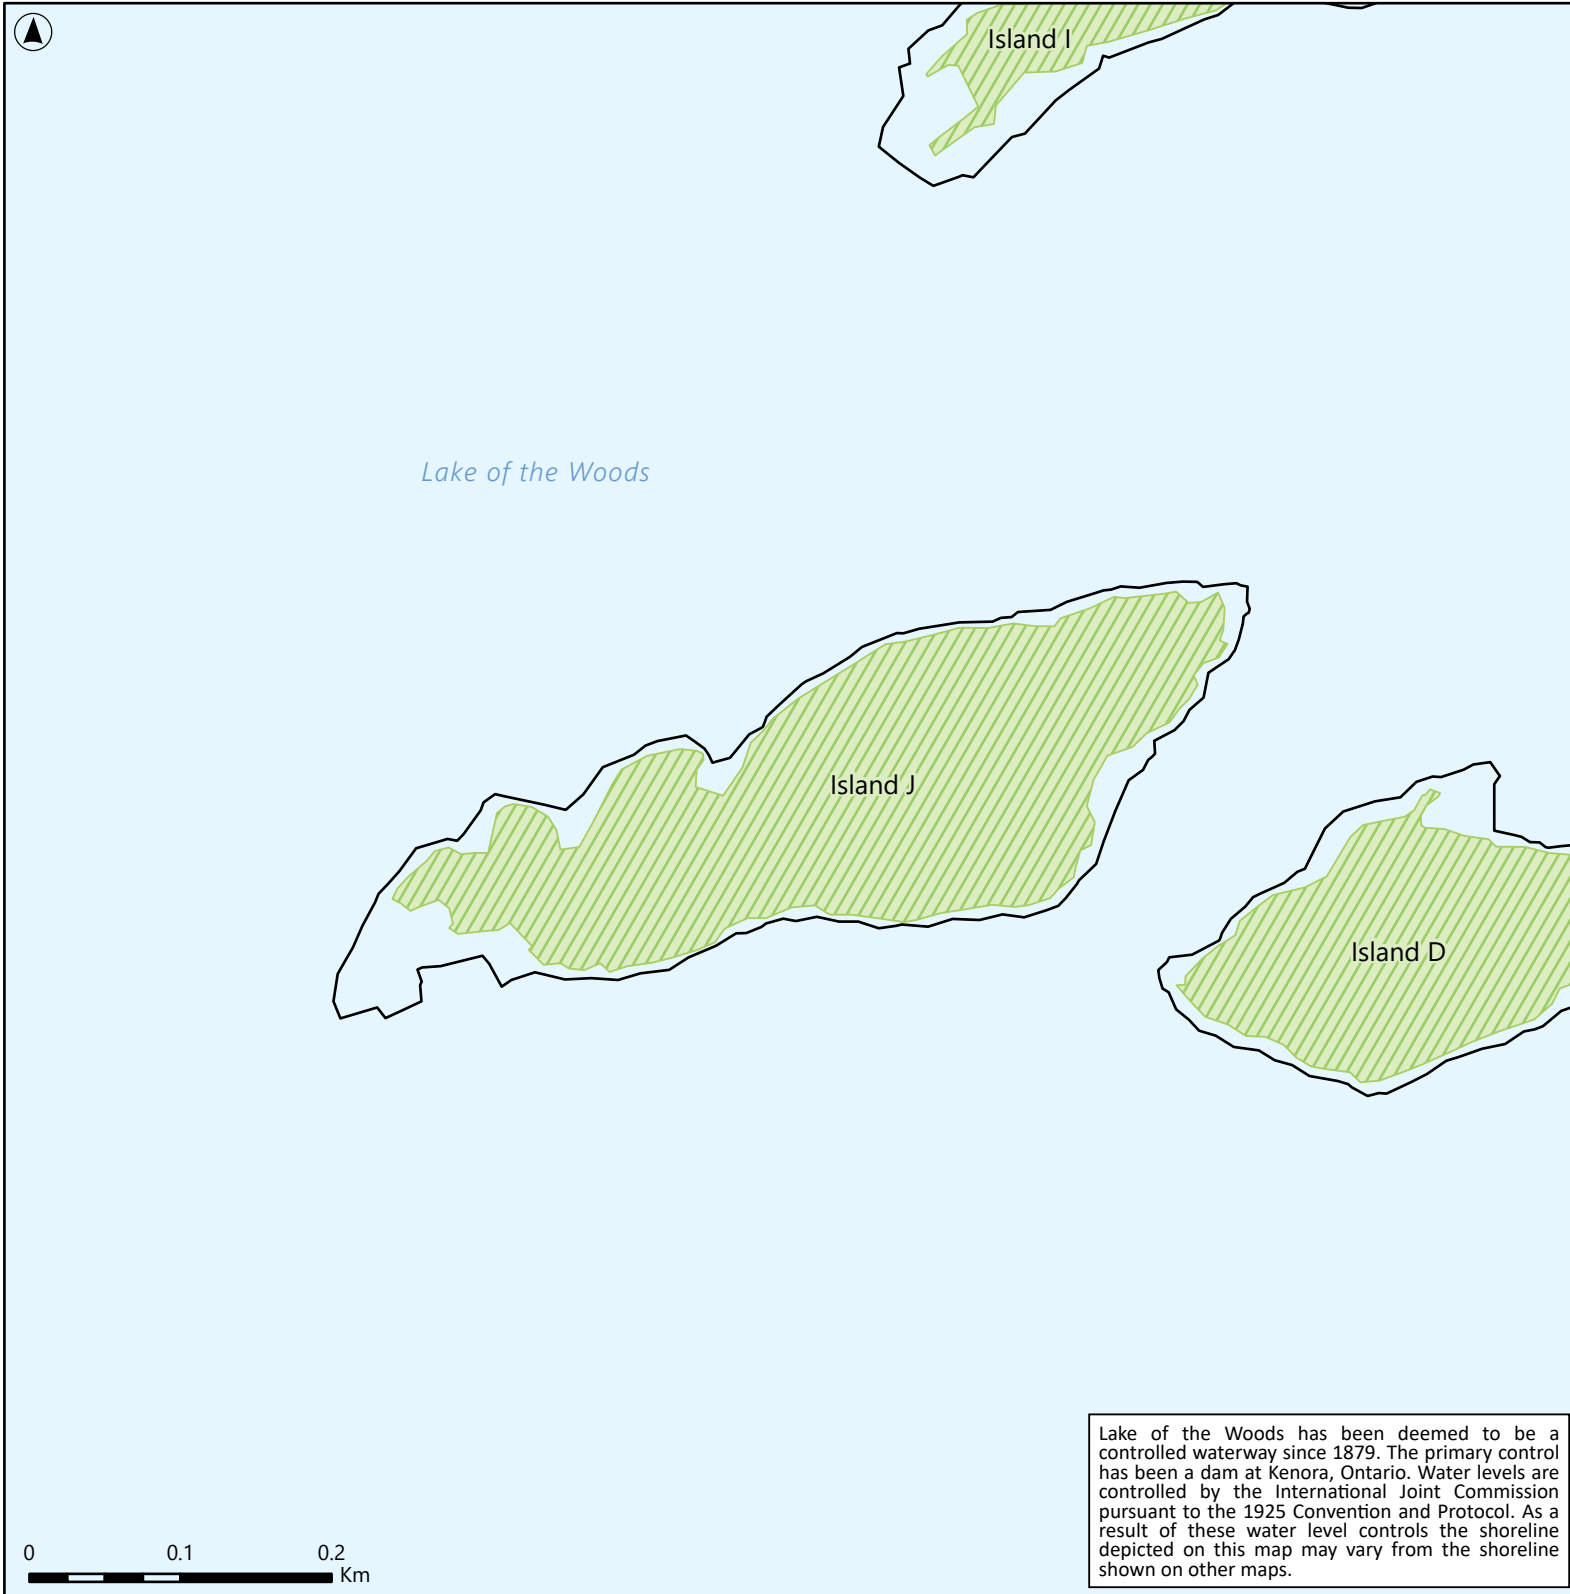

The Government of Ontario does not expropriate private property to settle land claims. Access to private property and the public right to navigation will be maintained.

Map produced by the Ministry of Indigenous Affairs and First Nations Economic Reconciliation (IAFNER) with data from Geospatial Ontario. Updated: May 20, 2025. Projection: NAD 1983 CSRS UTM Zone 15N Scale: 1:5,000

For illustrative and discussion purposes only. Distances and areas are approximate. This map should not be relied on as evidence of the location of legal boundaries, a precise indicator of routes or locations, or a guide to navigation. The Government of Ontario and its ministers, agents, and employees disclaim all responsibility for any errors, omission, or inaccuracies.

This map illustrates the Proposed Settlement Lands that Ontario may transfer to Canada for the Washagamis Bay First Nation's reserve claim. The lands are as follows: Islands A, B, D, G-North, G-South, H, I, J, K, M, and the land underwater surrounding each of these islands to a contour of 320.72m CGVD28. The Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed for Deregulation illustrate the lands that are proposed to be removed from the Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve prior to transfer to Canada.

If you need this document in an alternate format for accessibility reasons, please contact IAFNER at 416-920-3636 or WBFNGardenIslands@ontario.ca.

Lake of the Woods has been deemed to be a controlled waterway since 1879. The primary control has been a dam at Kenora, Ontario. Water levels are controlled by the International Joint Commission pursuant to the 1925 Convention and Protocol. As a result of these water level controls the shoreline depicted on this map may vary from the shoreline shown on other maps.

Washagamis Bay First Nation Garden Islands

Reserve Claim

FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY

-  Proposed Settlement Lands
(Island K area: 16.8 ac)
-  Washagamis Bay First Nation Reserve
-  Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve
-  Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed
for Deregulation
-  Private Land
-  Waterbody
-  Highway
-  Street

NOTES

The Government of Ontario does not expropriate private property to settle land claims. Access to private property and the public right to navigation will be maintained.

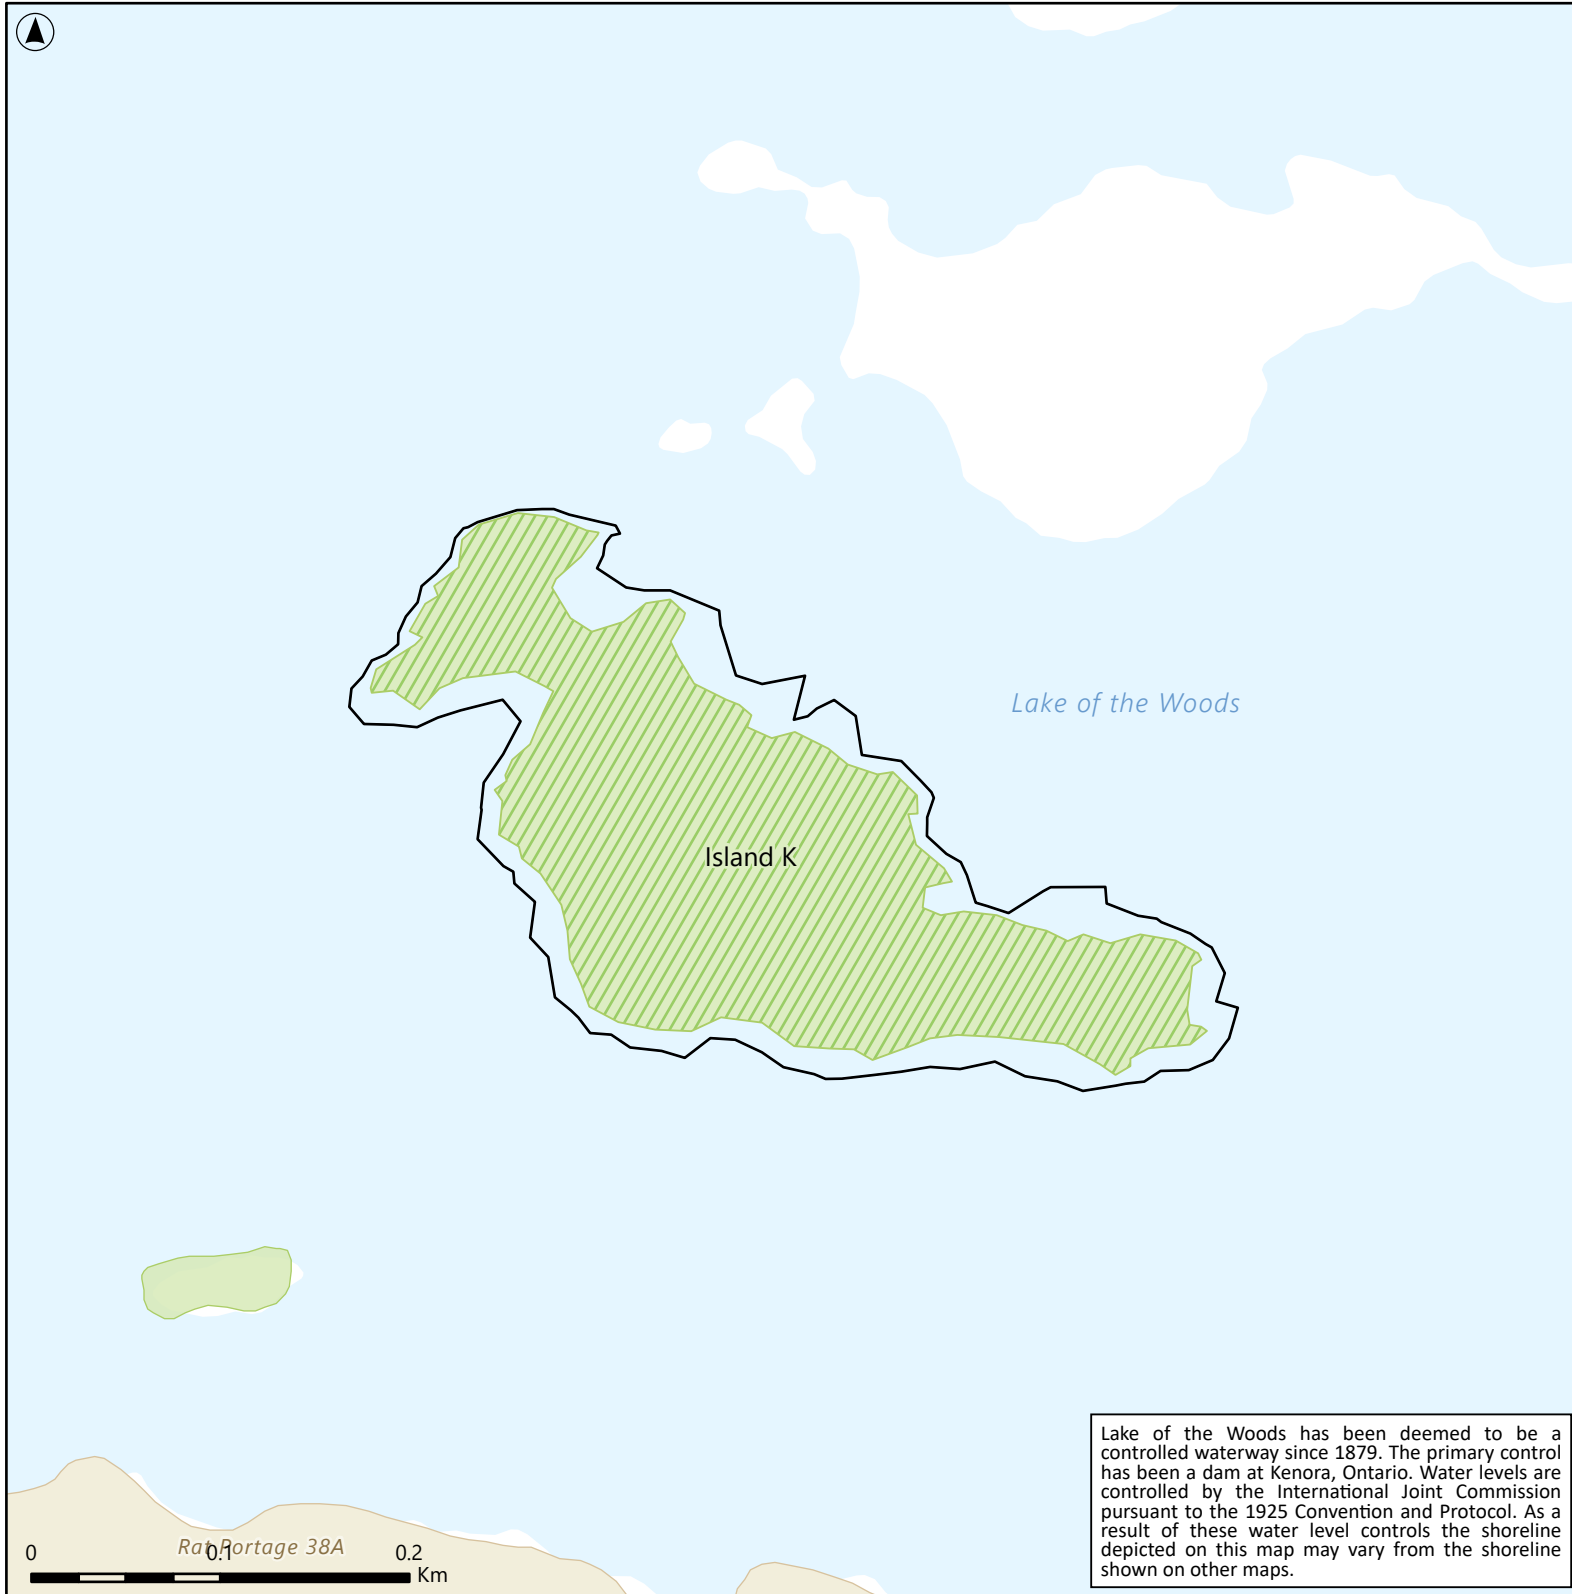

Map produced by the Ministry of Indigenous Affairs and First Nations Economic Reconciliation (IAFNER) with data from Geospatial Ontario. Updated: May 20, 2025. Projection: NAD 1983 CSRS UTM Zone 15N Scale: 1:4,000

For illustrative and discussion purposes only. Distances and areas are approximate. This map should not be relied on as evidence of the location of legal boundaries, a precise indicator of routes or locations, or a guide to navigation. The Government of Ontario and its ministers, agents, and employees disclaim all responsibility for any errors, omission, or inaccuracies.

This map illustrates the Proposed Settlement Lands that Ontario may transfer to Canada for the Washagamis Bay First Nation's reserve claim. The lands are as follows: Islands A, B, D, G-North, G-South, H, I, J, K, M, and the land underwater surrounding each of these islands to a contour of 320.72m CGVD28. The Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed for Deregulation illustrate the lands that are proposed to be removed from the Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve prior to transfer to Canada.

If you need this document in an alternate format for accessibility reasons, please contact IAFNER at 416-920-3636 or WBFNGardenIslands@ontario.ca.

© King's Printer for Ontario, 2025

Lake of the Woods has been deemed to be a controlled waterway since 1879. The primary control has been a dam at Kenora, Ontario. Water levels are controlled by the International Joint Commission pursuant to the 1925 Convention and Protocol. As a result of these water level controls the shoreline depicted on this map may vary from the shoreline shown on other maps.

Washagamis Bay First Nation Garden Islands

Reserve Claim

FOR ILLUSTRATIVE PURPOSES ONLY

-  Proposed Settlement Lands
(Island M area: 6.9 ac)
-  Washagamis Bay First Nation Reserve
-  Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve
-  Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed
for Deregulation
-  Private Land
-  Waterbody
-  Highway
-  Street

NOTES

The Government of Ontario does not expropriate private property to settle land claims. Access to private property and the public right to navigation will be maintained.

Map produced by the Ministry of Indigenous Affairs and First Nations Economic Reconciliation (IAFNER) with data from Geospatial Ontario. Updated: May 20, 2025. Projection: NAD 1983 CSRS UTM Zone 15N Scale: 1:3,000

For illustrative and discussion purposes only. Distances and areas are approximate. This map should not be relied on as evidence of the location of legal boundaries, a precise indicator of routes or locations, or a guide to navigation. The Government of Ontario and its ministers, agents, and employees disclaim all responsibility for any errors, omission, or inaccuracies.

This map illustrates the Proposed Settlement Lands that Ontario may transfer to Canada for the Washagamis Bay First Nation's reserve claim. The lands are as follows: Islands A, B, D, G-North, G-South, H, I, J, K, M, and the land underwater surrounding each of these islands to a contour of 320.72m CGVD28. The Conservation Reserve Lands Proposed for Deregulation illustrate the lands that are proposed to be removed from the Lake of the Woods Conservation Reserve prior to transfer to Canada.

If you need this document in an alternate format for accessibility reasons, please contact IAFNER at 416-920-3636 or WBFNGardenIslands@ontario.ca.

0 0.07 0.15
Km

Lake of the Woods

Island M

Lake of the Woods has been deemed to be a controlled waterway since 1879. The primary control has been a dam at Kenora, Ontario. Water levels are controlled by the International Joint Commission pursuant to the 1925 Convention and Protocol. As a result of these water level controls the shoreline depicted on this map may vary from the shoreline shown on other maps.